

- All bookcases were painted. All books were re-categorised and relabelled and restocked on their appropriate colour coordinated bookcases.
- Sample Art work by grade from the art show is now showcased and displayed in the library.
- Many long hours were spend on this project relabeling, and categorising which alone took three separate individuals approximately forty man hours each.

NEW SCHOOL TEXTBOOKS

A large chunk of our PTA funds have gone towards providing new textbooks for some of the older grades. The textbooks provided by the Board of Education only provide the basic foundation required, whereas the new textbooks ordered will help ensure our children have the best possible resource material available to hand.

CLASS INITIATIVES AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

Each grade has their own class rep whose role is to communicate information about upcoming events and also to try and make the teachers "wish list" items a reality.

Below are the class reps for your reference:

4th grade	Ainsley Smith lilyoliverfrank@yahoo.co.uk
5th grade	Gillian Noel-Bigler gillianneelbigler@mac.com
6th grade	No Rep volunteered
SEC Rep	Cindy Reynolds jonathan@jonathanreynolds.wanadoo.co.uk

Class initiatives are whereby a class would like to raise monies towards something specific to that class or grade. PTA funds are directed towards projects that will benefit the school as a whole (such as the library) as opposed to individual grades.

In October kinder and Grade 1 ran a painting initiative to help paint the shaded terraced area at the back of their building. They also raised enough money within these two grades to have two new benches built to accommodate the children during snack, and lunch breaks.

Last Friday the Special Education Centre (SEC) ran a Bake Sale. All parents of children currently receiving tuition in this centre contributed and baked items at this sale. The sale made over $500EC and this money will go directly back to the centre to be spent on educational material and resources.

Every month a bake sale will be held and organised by each individual grade and rep with all proceeds from the sale going back to the grade in question.
